Taryn Simon's sixth solo exhibition titled "Paperwork and the Will of Capital" is currently on view at Almine Rech Gallery, Brussels and will continue to run through November 5, 2016.

The exhibition features large-scale color photographs and sculptures. By combining photography, text and graphic design, Simon explores the power of politics in the modern world. His works are created through the process of examining agreements, contracts, treaties, and decrees drafted to influence systems of governance and economics, from nuclear armament to oil deals and diamond trading.

*The exhibition is on view at Almine
Rech Gallery, Rue de l'Abbaye 20, 1050
Brussels, Belgium.*
