'Gerasimos Floratos at Almine Rech', Artland, November 2020

Almine Rech Paris: Gerasimos Floratos

Gerasimos Floratos lives and works near Times Square, in the diverse and vibrant neighbourhood of Hell's Kitchen. His Greek-American parents run a Deli there; the artist has set up his studio downstairs, connected to the outside world only by basement windows through which he can just perceive the feet of passers-by and bustle of the city.
