Ronald Muchatuta

He began his career at the age of 16 as a pottery decorator at Ros Byrne Pottery in Harare, Zimbabwe in 2001. After being mentored at Gallery Delta in Harare and finishing his fine art exams through National Gallery of Zimbabwe in 2003, he relocated to South Africa in 2007 to pursue a career as an Artist. He is recognized as qualified Master Mosaic Artist at Spier Art Academy in Cape Town in which he completed his studies from 2010-2012. His current body of work is inspired by the theme of migration with an African context including globally.

Previous Artworks and special commissions are located in spaces of prestige worldwide including around South Africa and he has participated in commissioned mosaic artworks for clients in England, Bloemfontein, Johannesburg, and Cape Town to mention a few. He has exhibited at the "African Art Fair 2015" Paris, France and The "UN-Milan Expo 2015" representing Africa in Milan. He has exhibited at the Gallery of the University of Stellenbosch including Michaelis Galleries / University of Cape Town including a vast number of commercial Galleries from Johannesburg to Cape Town.

In 2017 he was interviewed and acknowledged for his Artistic efforts on BBC Worldwide news and having his work collected by the board members of The Museum of Modern Art (Private Collection). Collections of his work can be found in the Spier Art Collection.
