Comment: "In this deceptively sedate exhibition, Peter Peri creates a radical universe to explore the textures and structures characteristic of the experiences of the schizophrenic and the modernist artist. I marveled mostly at Peri's complex handling of illusionistic, irrational space through his hairy structures and his dense, organic mesh of lines. Layers of reality sit side by side in this show, the 'modern' and the schizophrenic acting as the mobile ready to assume any contours or texture to legitimise and valorise them. But there, in Peri's relatively static sculptures, we find something akin to an imbalance, something to find and ride into resistant universes, thwacking our heads against our animist projections.
