

artnet® news

Beyond the Fairs: Your Go-to Guide to Openings and Events During Frieze Week 2017

Can you see them all?

Every year, come the first week in May and the arrival of Frieze New York, galleries and museums pull out all the stops in an effort to get a piece of the captive art audience in town for the occasion. In addition to giving you the lowdown on the 14 other fairs joining Frieze this year, artnet News has combed through mountains of invitations and press releases to put together a survey of 40 of the most anticipated events and openings of the week, from Anish Kapoor's swirling vortex in Brooklyn Bridge Park to Diane Arbus at the Upper East Side's Lévy Gorvy. Happy hunting!

Exhibition of painting by Derain and early African heads and statues from the Gabon Pahouin tribes organized by Paul Guillaume at the Durand-Ruel Galleries New York in 1933. Photo: Archives Durand-Ruel. Courtesy of Almine Rech Gallery.

11. “Imaginary Ancestors” at Almine Rech Gallery

This group show looks at Primitivism and its effects on Modern and contemporary art. It restages the seminal 1933 Durand-Ruel Gallery exhibition in New York, and presents a parallel exhibition of works by Joe Bradley, Mark Grotjahn, James Turrel, Ana Medieta, and others.

Address: 39 East 78th street, 2nd Floor

Time: Opening reception, 6 p.m.–8 p.m.; Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–6 p.m.

On view through June 15th.