IMAGINARY ANCESTORS

– May 2 – June 14

Exhibition of Paintings by Derain and Early African Heads and Statues from the Gabon Pahouin Tribes, organized by Paul Guillaume at the Durand-Ruel Galleries New York from February 10 to March 15, 1933, photo by Archives Durand-Ruel, © 2017 Artists Rights Society (ARS), New York / ADAGP, Paris.

This two-part group show looks at Primitivism in modern and contemporary art. The first part features Fang sculptures alongside work by André Derain and Max Pechstein, in a restaging of Durand-Ruel Gallery's 1933 exhibition "Early African Heads and Statues from the Gabon Pahouin Tribes." The second will showcase work from artists including Mark Grotjahn, Ana Mendieta, and James Turrell, with primitive pieces from the personal collections of Pablo Picasso, Alexander Calder, and David Smith.
