ALMINE RECH

Modern Masters

Currently on view | Moco Museum, London, UK

'Modern Masters' celebrates the enduring legacies of artists within our modern and contemporary art history. From Andy Warhol to Damien Hirst, this exhibition weaves together a vibrant tapestry of artistic journeys across time and how they revolutionised art forever.

Together, these Masters highlight how art evolves through generations, reflecting and influencing societal changes and cultural dialogues. 'Modern Masters' invites us to contemplate on the power of art and its ongoing impact on our world.

Modern Masters

The Modern Masters have inspired countless generations and united art lovers around the world. Each master is celebrated for having a unique vision. They seize their moment in time to reflect and envision the future. Daring to change our world, they create work that becomes timeless.

With global impact, Moco Modern Masters have found their way into homes and museums worldwide – shaping our collective consciousness. Their names, art, and ideas are deeply woven in the fabric of our everyday lives. Andy Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Keith Haring – All Icons.

Contemporary Masters

Each of Moco’s Contemporary Masters are renowned for their distinctive vision and daring creations, adding to the continuously changing definition of art and challenging our expectations.

Artists like Yayoi Kusama, Jeff Koons, and Damien Hirst have transcended artistic boundaries with their innovative works, offering us fresh perspectives and new ways of thinking. From Kusama's cosmos to Hirst's butterflies and Koons' monumental inflatables, our collective realm of imagination is greatly expanded with these visionary Masters.