Independent Brussels 2019

Nov 9 — 11, 2018 | Brussels

Under the curatorial leadership of Vincent Honoré, Independent Brussels 2018 will reframe the art fair model into a performative festival welcoming live art, installations, curated displays, music, and discussions, resulting in an arena for experimentation, unexpected interactions and collective thinking.

For the first time, Independent has commissioned several debut performances and related talks for the 2018 Edition in November. Participating galleries have also commissioned new performances and projects.
