Forever

Grandpa spent forty years

Staring

Lyra

Cygnus

Draco

Pisces

Forty years

Dreaming

Leo, Cancer, Aries, Cassiopea

Forty years

Working

Ursa Major Ursa Minor

Gemin

The Magical Three of the Hunter, of Pyramid Correlation, of Stonehenge, of Hopi Mounds and Lunar Mansions, of speculation and myth, hope and belief, the Magical Three of the Hunter

Orion

Grandpa started early

And the Astronaut's earliest memories are of the stars and the sky, blackness, infinity

They would walk

Hand-in-hand

On nights when the moon was gone

And the only light

Came from

Forever

Out the door

Across the lawn

Through an empty forest of towering green

An ocean of still reeds

A hard smooth polished white concrete road

Rarely used

This barren road

Symbols appearing

Signs

Warnings

Gates that they climb

Hand-in-hand

Until they arrived

A giant circle

Burned

Covered in fuel stains

Deep marks repaired, caused by falling debris

Launch Pad

A taking-off place

Conduit to the eternal

Site to seek the vast unknown

They would lie in the middle

Without words

Holding hands

No Moon

Staring

An hour two three or four

Staring

The tingling bright of whatever you believe

God

The Big Bang

A simulation

It didn't matter how or what or who

It was there

Space

They were there

Billions

And billions

Billions and billions more

Tingling

Bright

Forever away and eternal

The stars our stars their stars who knows whose

Stars

Where they are might or

What might be

Among them

Whatever it is Wherever from

,,,,,

Whoever made

Controls

Guides

Drives

He knows what it brings

What lies ahead

What he sees

Alone

In the soft gray mud

Of the Moon

There is a choice

Complete

The Mission

Complete

The Dream

It is in front of him

A choice

For all

Or

Himself

Stares he stares

The Magical Three of the Hunter

Pyramid Correlation

Stonehenge and Hopi Mounds, Lunar Mansions

No more speculation, though hope and belief remain

Orion

A choice

All

Him

A choice for now

A choice for

Forever
